

What are the most common commute patterns in Australia?

Generally, those from ACT, Greater Melbourne and Greater Brisbane:

- Commute a further distance to their place of work than those from the rest of the states.

- The data is based on the median commute distances (kms).

Greater Capital City Statistical Area label

- Australian Capital Territory
- Rest of NSW
- Greater Adelaide
- Rest of NT
- Greater Brisbane
- Rest of Qld
- Greater Darwin
- Rest of SA
- Greater Hobart
- Rest of Tas.
- Greater Melbourne
- Rest of Vic.
- Greater Perth
- Rest of WA
- Greater Sydney
- Other Territories

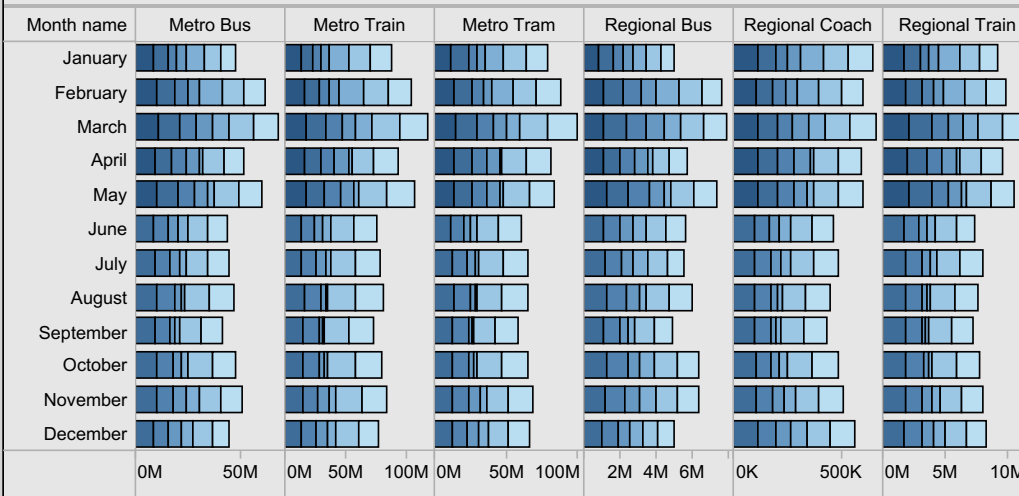

Median commuting distance to place of work by greater capital city area

Search area

- ☒ Australian Capital Territory
- ☒ Greater Adelaide
- ☒ Greater Brisbane
- ☒ Greater Darwin
- ☒ Greater Hobart
- ☒ Greater Melbourne
- ☒ Greater Perth
- ☒ Greater Sydney
- ☒ Other Territories
- ☒ Rest of NSW
- ☒ Rest of NT
- ☒ Rest of Qld
- ☒ Rest of SA
- ☒ Rest of Tas.
- ☒ Rest of Vic.
- ☒ Rest of WA

Monthly public transport usage

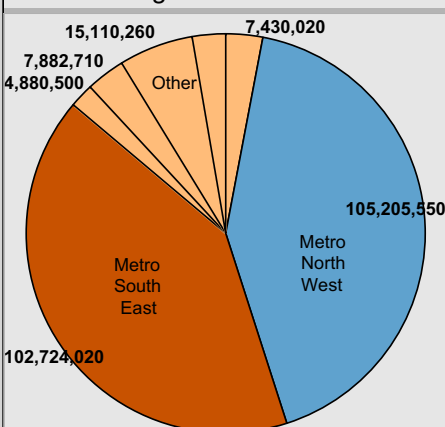

Adjust year

2018 to 2024

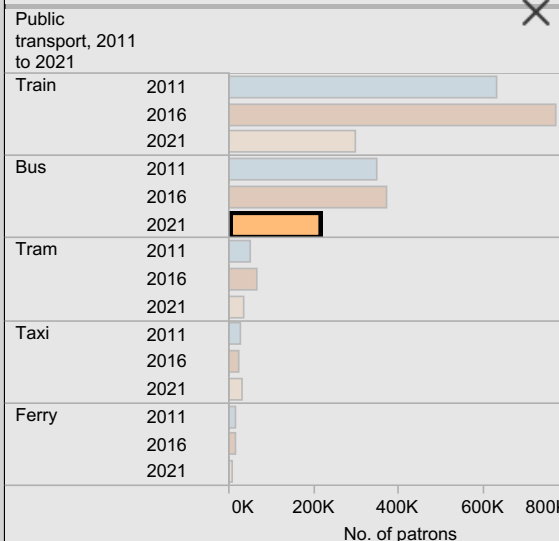

Public transport mode

- ☒ Metro Bus
- ☒ Metro Train
- ☒ Metro Tram
- ☒ Regional Bus
- ☒ Regional Coach
- ☒ Regional Train

Total annual traffic road usage by region in Victoria

Yearly public transport usage

- ☒ 2011
- ☒ 2016
- ☒ 2021

- 2011
- 2016
- 2021

Vis by: James Huynh,
01/09/2024

Data sources:
Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS):

- Distance commute to work by area
- Yearly public transport usage
- Data Vic (Department of Transport & Planning):
- Monthly public transport usage
- Traffic congestion level by region in Victoria